

BeautyNewsNYC.com
November 2008

Le Français et Le Carlyle

By Kimberly McDonald

We here at Beauty News NYC have made no secret of our deep affection for Yves Durif and his salon. For years, we have spread the word; if you want the best service, in the most appealing atmosphere, with technicians who know what they're doing...head to the Yves Durif Salon.

Imagine our delight when the Frenchman with that certain savoir-faire packs up shop and heads for a beautiful luxe new space that happens to be located just a few floors above our favorite watering hole. Yep, you got it, The Yves Durif Salon is now located at the Carlyle Hotel.

The Carlyle, a Rosewood Hotel and “vintage grande dame of Madison Avenue”, launched their Sense spa this year. When it came to coiffing its cultured clientele, nothing less than the best would do. Enter Yves Durif. With a downtown edge and uptown sophistication, Yves and his staff were a natural fit for the hotel – which hosts guests such as Katie Holmes and Eartha Kitt.

The Yves Durif Salon at the Carlyle is located at 35 East 76th Street At Madison Ave. To make an appointment, telephone (212) 452-0954.

<http://www.beautynewsnyc.com/hair-care/le-francais-et-le-carlyle/>